Electoral review briefing for full council
23rd May 2016

The Local Government Boundary Commission for England

How?

Council size:

Effective representations will address:

Governance and decision making

Scrutiny and outside bodies

Representational role of district councillors

Electoral ward boundaries:

Effective representations will address:

Electoral equality for voters

Community interests and identities

Convenient and effective local government

Effective representations at every stage:

- Tell us why you are putting forward your view: your rationale.
- Put forward an alternative, not just registering an objection.
- Provide evidence to support your argument.
- Consider the future.

How to get involved

The collage features several overlapping screenshots from the LGBCE website:

- York Electoral Review: A map of York with three colored regions: orange (1. My proposed...), green (2. My proposed...), and purple (3. My proposed Mickl...). A sidebar lists drawing tools: Marker Tool, Line tool, and Polygon tool, each with a brief instruction and a link to a guidance video.
- Suffolk Coastal District Electoral Review: A map showing three proposed boundaries in blue, labeled 1, 2, and 3. A sidebar lists the same drawing tools as the York page.
- East Dorset Electoral Review: A page titled "Electoral review of East Dorset" with the sub-header "Tell us what you think". It includes sections for "Our draft recommendations" and "Have your say".
- Website Navigation: A screenshot of the top navigation bar with links for Home, Glossary, FOI requests, FAQs, Web feeds (RSS), and Accessibility.

Electoral review of East Dorset

Tell us what you think

The independent Local Government Boundary Commission for England is asking people across East Dorset to comment on proposed new electoral arrangements for the District Council.

Our draft recommendations

Our draft recommendations propose new wards, ward boundaries and ward names across East Dorset.

We are now asking local people to have their say

- Do the proposed wards reflect local communities?
- How do you think the proposals can be improved?
- Are the names of the proposed wards right?

For more information, including interactive maps, visit consultation.lgbce.org.uk and www.lgbce.org.uk. The report and maps will also be available in council buildings and libraries.
