34/21 Disclosure of Interests

There were none.

35/21 Urgent Business (If any)

There were no items of urgent business.

36/21 Announcements

Executive Mayor, Jason Perry, wished all a Happy International Women's Day, and congratulated Councillor Rowenna Davis on the recent birth of her baby. The Chair echoed the well wishes of the Mayor and entire Council.

37/21 Council Tax and Budget 2023-24

It was agreed that the order of the meeting would include fifteen minutes of questions to the Executive Mayor followed by fifteen minutes of questions to the Cabinet Member for Finance.

In the first round of questioning the Mayor responded that:

- The proposed increase in Council Tax was not to make savings for the future but to cut expenses as part of a package of cost-cutting measures, which would make income available to the council for future years;
- Alternative budget proposals had not come forward from the Labour group;
- The Mayor was keen for members to approach the Executive to make recommendations about how the Hardship Fund should be accessed to ensure those with differing accessibility requirements and the digitally excluded would be able to access support;
- The council would ensure that core services and functions were provided and that the Executive was ensuring the budget provided improvement to those services;
- There were around forty different projects planned for the Transformation Programme for which £10m was allocated, all with differing phases and impacts; and,
- Scrutiny had assessed that the budget was prudent, safe and deliverable;

During the fifteen minutes of questions to the Cabinet Member for Finance, Councillor Jason Cummings responded that:

- £200m worth of capital receipts were included in the Medium Term Financial Strategy (MTFS);
- The council did not owe any money to Central Government for covid-related costs;
- There were various pots of money which could be used at the discretion of the council to provide support to residents who were classed as having 'no recourse to public funds', who were noted as four times more likely to fall behind on bills with Council Tax being the most common bill of this nature;

Council then debated the amendment put forward by the Green group. Councillor Ria Patel, speaking on behalf of the amendment, explained that the improvements contained in the proposed £1m allocation of money to improving active travel infrastructure in the borough was needed to make the borough safer and more accessible, and satisfied the Mayor's need to include environmental improvements in the budget.

Councillor Esther Sutton seconded the motion and reserved her right of reply.

Councillor Chris Clark explained that the issue of active travel had been addressed in the Mayor's Business Plan, and that he support the amendment enthusiastically.

Councillor Jason Cummings explained that, even if the Conservative group voted in favour of the amendment the Green group had made it clear that they did not support the Executive's budget proposals, and so they could not support the amendment, even though they were happy to work collaboratively on these issues going forwards.

Councillor Esther Sutton expressed that they welcomed the support from the Labour group but that it was a shame the Executive would not support the proposals.

Council then voted on the amendment and:

RESOLVED, with 35 votes in favour and 34 votes against and one abstention, not to amend the budget proposals in accordance with that put forward by the Green group.

Council then debated the substantive motion, which was the Executive Mayor's original budget proposal. Members argued that:

- There were no possible alternatives to this budget;
- The rise in Council Tax would deepen existing inequalities that existed especially in Croydon;
- The £2m Hardship Fund would be in place to support the most vulnerable;
- It would be fairer to allow the residents of Croydon to vote on the increase in a referendum;
- The tens of thousands of residents who signed the petition against the increase were being ignored;
- Not passing this budget would bring the entire council to a halt, and that was not in the best interests of residents; and,
- If this budget was not passed members would need to take upon themselves the personal liability that the repercussions would entail.

Council then voted and:

RESOLVED, with 34 votes for and 36 votes against, to reject the budget proposals put forward by the Executive Mayor.

The Chief Finance Officer then outlined the requirement for members to pass a budget, and the Chair MOVED that members withdraw from the meeting to hold discussions in private for up to forty minutes This was SECONDED by Councillor Mario Creatura and RESOLVED to adjourn the meeting for up to forty minutes.

Members withdrew from the Chamber at 8.50 pm and returned at 9.36 pm.

Mayor Jason Perry MOVED the budget proposals as contained in the report. This was SECONDED by Councillor Jason Cummings.

Councillor Stuart King, Leader of the Opposition, on behalf of the Labour group stated that the party did not believe that the Executive had properly followed the process for increasing Council Tax by this amount, but that they understood the significance of the impact of not setting a budget, and so the members had no choice other than to abstain from the vote.

Councillor Ria Patel, speaking on behalf of the Green group, stated that they had been given no alternatives, and that they had no choice other than to vote against this budget.

Councillor Claire Bonham, Liberal Democrat member, stated she too would not be voting for this budget.
