

Appendix 3 – Item: Youth Justice Plan 2024/25

Considered by Children & Young People Sub-Committee, 16 July 2024

REC No.	SCRUTINY RECOMMENDATION	DEPARTMENT AND CABINET MEMBER RESPONDING	ACCEPTED / PARTIALLY ACCEPTED / ALREADY IN PROGRESS / REJECTED (inc. reasons for rejection)	IDENTIFIED OFFICER	ANY FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS	TIMETABLE FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF RECOMMENDATIONS IF ACCEPTED (i.e. Action Plan)	DATE OF SCRUTINY MEETING TO REPORT BACK
CYP.2.24/25	The Sub-Committee recommended that the Youth Justice Plan 2025/26 include hypothetical case studies, which included community and intervention work, to make the information in the report more accessible.	Clr Maria Gatland CYPE	Partially accepted The Council has a range of real-life case studies that could be used once anonymised. The selected case studies will include examples of joint working and high-risk cases where intervention has worked well, and examples of complex cases.	Róisín Madden, Director of Children’s Social Care	N/A	To be included in the Youth Justice Plan 2025/26 @April 2025	TBC
CYP.3.24/25	The Sub-Committee recommended that the Youth Justice Plan 2025/26 include some information on how high-risk young people have been tracked through to where they have ended up now, including information on higher education and employment, by collaborating with the Probation Service where necessary.	Clr Maria Gatland CYPE	Accepted Anticipated information and analysis for report in 2025/26 tracker in place for all children transitioned into Probation with quarterly checks on outcomes over a 12-month period. This will then allow YJS and the Probation Service to jointly review the data.	Róisín Madden, Director of Children’s Social Care	N/A	To be included in the Youth Justice Plan 2025/26 @April 2025	TBC