6. MANAGERS RESPONSIBILITY FOR COMPLIANCE WITH LICENCE CONDITIONS

6.0 A Licence Holder can impose restrictions or obligations on another person to ensure that the licencing conditions are satisfied. A Licence Holder can only impose restrictions or obligations where that person has consented to the imposition of the restrictions or obligations. If the Licence Holder appoints a person to manage the house (where this involves the consent to the imposition of the restriction or obligations) during the period of the licence, he or she must meet conditions 6.1 to 6.4 inclusive. This condition is to ensure there is clarity over who has responsibility to meet the conditions.

- 6.1 Before or upon the person's appointment, obtain from the person a written declaration ("Declaration of Management") identifying the licence conditions, if any, by which he or she agrees to be bound. The declaration can state compliance with;
 - 6.1.1 All of the conditions.
 - 6.1.2 Some of the licence conditions
 - 6.1.3 None of the licence conditions.
- 6.2 Ensure that the "Declaration of Management" includes:
 - 6.2.1 A recital that the person has read and understood the requirements of the licence conditions;
 - 6.2.2 A notice informing the person that a failure to comply with the conditions may result in criminal and/or civil liability, including an unlimited fine or a financial penalty of up to £30,000 for each breach;
 - 6.2.3 A notice that, if the person requires advice about the conditions or any failure to comply with them he or she should consult a Citizens Advice Bureau or a housing solicitor, before signing the declaration;
 - 6.2.4 A recital that the person understands the consequences of failing to comply with the licence conditions;
 - 6.2.5 A recital that either (6.1.1) the person agrees to be bound by all of the licence conditions, (6.1.2) the person agrees to be bound by such of the conditions as the declaration specifies or (6.1.3) a recital that the person does not agree to be bound by any of the licence conditions, and
 - 6.2.6 In the case of (6.2) or (6.3) below, a statement that the Licence Holder alone is bound by the licence conditions;

- 6.4 Either on request from the Council or within 14 days of the manager's appointment, ensure that the Council is provided with a copy of the "Declaration of Management".

Note. Section 90 of the Housing Act 2004 enables the Council to impose conditions on the licence holder and other appointed persons. Some of these conditions are mandatory conditions as required by section 90(4) and listed in Schedule 4. CPRPL 2020 is a Part 3 scheme. Conditions 1.0, 1.1, 1.4, 3.0, 3.1, 3.2 and 4.0 are the mandatory conditions.

Failure to comply with any licence condition may result in proceedings including fines up to £30,000 and loss of the licence.

GLOSSARY:

ANTI SOCIAL BEHAVIOUR – A widely used definition of anti-social behaviour is the definition contained in the Crime and Disorder Act (1998): ‘Acting in a manner that caused or was likely to cause harassment, alarm or distress to one or more persons not of the same household.’

BUILDING CONTROL- This licence does NOT grant any Building Control (Development Control) approvals, consents or permissions, retrospectively or otherwise. This licence does not offer any protection or excuse against enforcement action taken by the Building Control (Development Control) Department.

CONSUMER RIGHTS & UNFAIR PRACTICES - The Licence Holder’s attention is drawn to Office of Fair Trading’s (OFT) guidance on unfair contracts in relation to their tenancies or licences. The Licence Holder must negotiate its agreements in good faith and must not carry out misleading or aggressive commercial practices. Full information should be supplied to any prospective occupier including details of this licence. It is not the responsibility of the Authority’s Property Licensing Team to ensure the Licence Holder has complied with the above statutory requirements. If you are unclear on any of the matters outlined above, you should seek professional advice.

ENERGY PERFORMANCE CERTIFICATE (EPC) – a certificate (and associated report) that sets out the energy efficiency rating of a property and contains recommendations for ways in which the energy efficiency of the property could be improved. Most domestic (and non-domestic) buildings sold, rented out or constructed since 2008 must have an EPC. An EPC may also be required when a property is altered in particular ways.

LICENCE HOLDER – A licence holder has full responsibility for ensuring that the licence conditions are met. The Council will determine that the licence holder is the most appropriate person to hold the licence. For the purposes of the conditions this person can also include a person who has, for the term of the licence, consented to the Licence Holder imposing restrictions or obligations on them to ensure that the licencing conditions are satisfied. This consent must be agreed formally and be sent in at the point of the licence application.

OVERCROWDING – An overcrowded house is measured using a statutory standard contained within the Housing Act 1985. The standard includes any habitable room (bedroom, living room, dining room, study etc) but does not include non-habitable rooms such as the bathroom or a non-dining kitchen or hallway. The areas with ceilings less than five foot (1.524m) are not included in the measurements. The standard considers:

1. Room standard – numbers of people permitted with room numbers. E.G If there are two bedrooms a maximum of three people can occupy.
2. Space standard – numbers of people permitted to sleep in rooms of specified sizes. E.G. One person (over 10 years old) can sleep in a room 6.5 to 8.36m² (70 to 90ft²)
3. Gender overcrowding - no two persons, over 10 years old, of opposite sex should have to sleep in the same room (unless living as a couple).

The government has proposed the introduction of a bedroom standard to replace the current statutory standard set out above. A standard number requirement of bedrooms is calculated for each household in accordance with its age/sex/marital status composition. In addition to the Overcrowding Standards, we also have regard to the provisions of the Housing Health and Safety Rating System (HHSRS).

PLANNING PERMISSION - This licence does NOT grant any planning approvals, consents or permissions under the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 or any related planning legislation, retrospectively or otherwise. If the property is being used as a House in Multiple Occupation (HMO) this may constitute a breach of planning control and you should check the Authority's website to ensure the correct planning permissions are in place. This licence does not offer any protection against enforcement action taken by the Planning Department. If you are unclear on the matters outlined above you should seek professional planning advice.

PROPERTY CONDITION - This licence is NOT evidence that the property is safe or free from hazards and defects. The licence does not offer any protection against criminal or civil legal action being taken against the Licence Holder, or anyone else with an interest in the property, in respect of any hazards, nuisances or any other problems discovered in relation to the condition of the property.

The property licence and conditions do not imply or grant by inference or otherwise any approval or permission for any other purposes including those for Building Control, Development Control and under The Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005. Conversely compliance with any of those requirements does not confer or imply compliance with the requirements of the Housing Act 2004 including property licensing.

Any requirements relating to the licence and conditions are without prejudice to assessments and appropriate actions including enforcement actions under the Housing Act 2004. This includes actions to deal with category 1 and category 2 hazards as may be identified under Housing Health and Safety Rating System (HHSRS) and does not preclude such action.

PROSECUTION/ CONTRAVENTIONS CONSEQUENCES – If an offence is committed the Council may look to take action which can include the issuing of a Simple Caution, Financial Penalty, or a prosecution in the Magistrates Court. Please note that any legal action taken against the Licence Holder or anyone associated with Licence Holder, or the management of the property (with or without responsibility for conditions), may affect the Licence Holder's 'fit and proper' status. The Authority can revoke or vary the licence at any time, giving proper statutory notice.

SUPERIOR LANDLORD – the person or company for the time being who owns the interest in the property which gives him the right to possession of the premises at the end of the landlord's lease of the property.
